Fr. Simon writes: I would like to ask for prayer at this time for Fr Jude Mbonu who is to join our Newman Cluster sometime in February. There will be an opportunity to welcome Fr Jude at some informal gathering in February which will be announced in due course. I include below a short biography of Fr Jude who is teaching law at Newman University here in our city. His work at the University will continue to be his main work, but Fr Jude has also graciously agreed to help the Cluster at the weekend and at other key moments in the liturgical and pastoral life of the three Cluster parishes. Fr. Jude offers the following information about his background: 'My name is Fr. Jude Mbonu, and I was ordained a priest on 8 July 2006 at the Basilica of the Most Holy Trinity in Onitsha, Nigeria, in the Catholic Archdiocese of Onitsha. I arrived in the United Kingdom in 2017 to pursue postgraduate studies in Law at Bangor University and Queen Mary University of London, respectively. Alongside my academic journey, I served as Assistant Parish Priest at St. Joseph, Maidenhead, and later as Parish Priest at St. Thomas More, Twyford, and St. Joseph's, Tilehurst, all in the Catholic Diocese of Portsmouth. I am currently privileged to serve as a member of staff at Birmingham Newman University. I have been at St Michael and Holy Angels Church in West Bromwich since October last year, supporting pastoral work and parishioners.' As we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord, we remember Christ's baptism in the river Jordan. Sometimes people are baptised today in the river Jordan or at their home parish with water collected from the Jordan, but that might actually miss the point, that Jesus Christ's baptism has hallowed all waters and that includes our UK streams, rivers, reservoirs and seas! This is sometimes witnessed in the east as 'The Blessing of Waters' at this time. As for the significance of Christ's baptism for us, St Gregory Nazianzen writes that Christ 'wants you to become living force for all mankind, lights shining in the world. You are to be radiant lights as you stand beside Christ, the great light, bathed in the glory of him who is the light of heaven.'

May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace!

Altar Servers' Retreat: We have a Cluster youth event at Alton Castle 27 Feb - 1 Mar, which is for altar servers. The cost is (subsidised) at £45 per child for the weekend. If you are interested please deliver £45 cash to me clearly marked with child's name to church office or to me direct. Please also fill in young person consent form on: <https://www.tfaforms.com/5196821> And let Fr. Simon, know you have done so!

Mass Intentions: We will do our best to respect specific dates and requests for particular places of worship, but we cannot absolutely guarantee it. In particular, we cannot necessarily ensure that a weekend Sunday Mass will be available. Please continue to put your envelope and stipend into the parish office so that we can keep a record of all Masses requested. There will need to be a discussion at the next Parish Pastoral Council meeting about the best long term solution in the circumstances.

Reorganisation of our ministry of Holy Communion to the sick and housebound: we will need to integrate this absolutely vital ministry across the Cluster and this will inevitably require new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) to be commissioned. Please pray about whether this is a ministry you could undertake or if you have already been undertaking it, please pray about whether you are able to continue. In the New Year we will call a meeting of all existing EMHC along with any parishioners willing to offer themselves for this ministry.

Christmas Jumpers: We are now collecting any unwanted Christmas Jumpers, Cardigans, wrapping paper and gifts. If you have any unwanted items, please call Claire in the parish office on 0121 3730988 to arrange drop off between Monday-Friday 8.30am-3pm

Job vacancy: The Newman Centre on the Boldmere Road managed by St Nicholas, Boldmere, has a vacancy for a part-time Supervisor working c.10 hours a week at £12.72 per hour. Further details are at the back of Church.
